

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST

Call for English teachers to apply to be registered on the JRS Malta Supply Teacher List

JRS Malta is launching a call for suitably qualified TEACHERS with experience teaching English as a foreign language to be listed on the JRS Malta preferred supplier/supply teacher list to provide English language and literacy courses between April 2026 and March 2027.

The aim of this call is to identify teachers who would be willing to be contacted by JRS Malta when the organisation is planning language and/or literacy courses, to determine their availability to provide services.

The courses will be organised at intervals throughout the year, in ten to sixteen-week blocks at different levels, including literacy, basic English, Intermediate or Advanced Matriculation level, and IELTS, according to need.

Teachers selected for registration on the supply list would be asked to sign a framework agreement, consenting to be registered and detailing the terms and conditions.

When teaching a course, teachers would be expected to be able to provide between 1 to 4 hours of teaching a week between Monday to Friday 9:30am to 18:30pm, at specific times to be established by agreement with the organisation. Classes will be held either at the JRS office in Floriana, in one of the open centres for asylum seekers and refugees or in any other suitable location.

Job description

Selected candidates would be expected to:

- Prepare and deliver one or more 10-16 week English Language Course/s at either literacy, basic English, intermediate and/or advanced level and/or an IELTS Preparation Course for refugees and asylum seekers in the different locations indicated by the Youth Programme Coordinator.
- Assess students at the start and end of the course/s to determine their language level.
- Keep updated records of attendance and performance throughout the course.
- Attend induction sessions, as necessary, and occasional planning meetings.

Qualifications

Applicants must:

- be in possession of the necessary qualifications to teach English as a foreign language.
- have at least 9 months experience teaching English as a foreign language.
- be able to speak and write English fluently.
- be able to work independently and take initiative.
- have good communication and organisational skills.
- have the flexibility to respond to possible changes in class composition and attendance during the programme.
- be able to work in a team.
- be willing to work with and for people from diverse cultures.

The following will be considered an asset:

- Experience working with people from diverse cultures.
- Possession of a driving licence and own transport.
- Training and/or experience in teaching adult literacy.

Application and selection process

Applicants are to submit a letter of application, a recent police conduct certificate contact details of two referees, and a detailed Curriculum Vitae by not later than 9th March 2026 via email on mark@jrsmalta.org.

More information about JRS and its projects is available at www.jrsmalta.org